

Quotes about charity

No one has ever become poor by giving.

Anne Frank
diarist

The smallest good deed is better than the grandest good intention.

Jacques Joseph Duguet theologian

Philanthropy is commendable, but it must not cause the philanthropist to overlook the circumstances of economic injustice which make philanthropy necessary.

Martin Luther King Jr
minister and activist

Thinking about charity

Caring thinking

Does giving to charity make you a caring person?

Collaborative thinking

Is encouraging others to donate to charity as good as giving yourself?

Creative thinking

How many different ways can you think of to raise money for charity?

Critical thinking

If everyone in the world gave to charity, what would be the outcome?

Has your school ever done anything for charity?

Would there ever be a time when charity isn't needed?

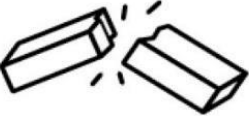

How many different words can you connect with charity?

CONNECT

LISTEN/LOOK

ZOOM (in/out)

If giving to charity was required by law, would it still be charity?

Look around – do you see people you think might be less fortunate than you?

Should governments do more to prevent the need for charity?

What kind of charity would you prefer to support?

Discussion suggestions (age 3 - 5)

Sesame Street – Change the World song. Look too at the Sesame Workshop charity here: www.sesameworkshop.org

This girl group sings about the things they could do to change the world.

Talking Points

- Can you remember the different things the girl said she could do to change the world?
- Which one of them would you like to do most?
- What other things could you do to help others?
- Could you even help people you don't know?

Activity

- Dance to the song and add your own words, of things you could do to change the world.
- On a big sheet of paper, draw or paint all the different ways people could help each other.
- Cut them out and show them at school or to your friends. Ask them what they could do too.

Rays of Sunshine charity

Mark Ronson records the song 'Valerie' with a group of seriously ill children.

Talking Points

- Why do you think Mark Ronson, a very famous musician, did this?
- Could granting someone's wish help them feel better?
- Do you know what your family and friends' wishes are?

Activities

- Look at the different ways people can help: <https://raysofsunshine.org.uk/support-us/>
- Plan your own 'sunflower fundraising', at home or school, using this to help: <http://raysofsunshine.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/Sunshine-Garden-Fundraising-Pack.pdf>

Save the Children TV campaign 2021

(Note to grown-ups: Dialogue Works doesn't have any links to this charity – it's just an example for discussion.)

Talking Points

- Which part of the video made the biggest impression on you?
- Why do you think the charity isn't asking for lots of money from people?
- Is it better for lots of people to give a little or for a few people to give lots?
- Should charities have to exist?

Activities

- Read about the long history of Save the Children here: www.savethechildren.org.uk/about-us/our-history
- Look on a map to see if you can find all the countries mentioned. Are there any others you suggest should be included?
